Program, Entertainment, Exhibits and Awards At Illinois 91st State Fair

The 91st Illinois State Fair will open at Springfield, August 8, and continue through August 17th. All the huge exhibit buildings have been reconditioned for the big show, larger parking areas have been provided, and an improved sewage system installed. This fair, known throughout the Midwest as a great agricultural and educational event, will be the most elaborate this year since the war.

The first two days of the fair, August 8 and 9, have programs especially for young people. On Friday morning 4-H competitions start, and junior livestock judging begins August 9, continuing through August 14. Members of 4-H clubs, Future Farmers of America and other youth organizations, both boys and girls, will vie for honors in hundreds of competitions and events, ranging from prize livestock to the designing of clothing and leading of bands.

Sunday, August 10th, will be Veterans Day. Prizes totaling $7,500 have been set up for competing units which include bands, drum corps, clown and novelty acts, junior bands and drum corps, drill teams and special units. Governor Dwight H. Green will award eight special cups.

Throughout the week judging of exhibits and competitions will go on in the 29 departments of the fair, where over 3,000 classes and competitive events will participate in premiums amounting to $248,614.

The Horse Shows will open with the Western Horse show Friday night, August 8th, in the Colliseum. Illinois-owned horses will hold the stage Saturday night, while the Society Horse show will be presented Monday through Friday, August 11 to 15th.

Grand Circuit Harness racing will be held August 11 to 15, inclusive, starting daily at 1:30 p. m. Some of America's best harness horses will compete, including Rodney, Grand Parade, Ensign Hanover, The Diplomat, and many other winners around this season's circuit.

Young Findlay Musician Guest Artist on Program

Miss Gloria Minor, Junior in the Findlay high school, Junior choir director and member of Senior choir of the Methodist church, was guest artist with the Decatur Band at a concert last Monday evening in Central Park in that city. Her number was Concertino by Carl Von Weber, on a clarinet.

Miss Minor received great applause and as usual did her solo parts beautifully. This was her third time to appear with the Decatur band.

She is also a very fine pianist. Findlay is, and well should be, very proud of Miss Minor. She will play again in the near future.

To The Subscribers of The Findlay Enterprise

This issue of your Enterprise is coming from another Editor than the one who has given you your paper for the past many years. You will see a great change in the make-up of the paper. The pages are smaller, but there are more of them. In the matter of inches of printed matter, you are receiving more of it than before.

Mrs. John Mauzey, who has edited your paper for you in the past, is now collecting the news in Findlay and the surrounding community for the Enterprise. She will have more time for this work than in the past for she would have to do the mechanical work also on her paper after she collected the news. She will appreciate any news that is called to her, or mailed into her. If she asks you for news, give it to her. Many of your friends who live away from Findlay are anxious to know what everyone at home is doing, and this is the way most of them depend on learning of this news.

The Editor was a caller in Findlay last Friday and visited many of the business houses. He was well impressed with the friendly spirit which was shown him on his first call to a community in which he was editing a newspaper.

At this time the Editor wishes to thank the merchants who placed their ads in the first issue of the new Enterprise, and he hopes that the type of makeup of the paper, the style in which the ads are set and the way in which the reading matter is placed around the ads, will meet their approval, and continue to use the columns of their home paper to tell the people what they have to offer for sale.

To the merchants who are not regular advertisers, we will continue to visit you every week, and hope at sometime to be of a service to you as the merchandise becomes more available.

Extra copies of the Enterprise are being mailed out this week and if the reader of this paper should not be a regular reader of the Enterprise, and you wish to be one, give your money to Mrs. Mauzey, mail it to the Enterprise office in Findlay, or to the Echo office in Bethany. We are sure that you will enjoy reading the paper each and every week, and the way to get it regularly, is to subscribe for it.

The yearly rate is $1.50 and we are sorry that due to the paper shortages, we can not accept less than one year subscriptions.

Law Defines Legal Status

Question has been raised about the Findlay Enterprise being able to print legal notices since it is printed in Bethany. The Enterprise is mailed in Findlay the same as it has been for the past fifty years, and the point of entry in the mails, defies the county in which it can print legal notices for. The Enterprise will be happy to publish any or all legal notices pertaining to the people in the northern part of Shelby county. As soon as they are published, the proper Publisher's Certificate will be made and sent to the proper people who should receive it.

A False Rumor

Rumors are flying, so we might make a statement. The Enterprise building has not been sold, and we have no intention of selling, as far as we know now. The entire building will be used as our home. Mr. McIlwain moved out some of the equipment last week, and will move the heavier machinery at his convenience.

—Bonnie Mauzey.

New Features Added To Legion Convention Aug. 15-18 To Attract Crowds

With a view of staging the most successful state convention in the history of the Illinois American Legion, three new features have been added to the program of this year's gathering of the veterans, to be held in Chicago during Aug. 15 to 18, with headquarters in the Morrison Hotel, it has been announced by Frank W. Bloom, Legion state convention chairman.

The principal added feature of the program is a plan designed to give the convention parade a carnival flavor through the introduction of elaborately decorated floats depicting the principles and aims of the Legion. More than 50 large corporations have applied for participation in the parade, which will be held commencing at 1 p. m., Sunday, August 17th.

A convention dance, to be held in the Chicago Arena, commencing at 9 p. m., on Sunday night, with free admission to all convention visitors who register at Legion headquarters, 343 S. Dearborn St., will be attended by thousands of veterans and their friends. The dance was added to the program for the special entertainment of World War II veterans and their young friends.

The third feature, hailed as a bargain by Legion leaders, will be an entertainment coupon book received by all registrants, containing admission tickets for several places of amusement in the city, and a coupon for housing accommodations such as hotel rooms. The coupon book, which has a $5 value for a cost of only $2, will also entitle the registrant to a convention badge and complete convention program. The book will contain 18 tickets for places of amusement, which will include the Chicago Musicland Festival, the convention dance, a tour of Chinatown, an da visit to the Oriental Institute and the Art Institute. Other places of interest to visitors, included in the coupon book, are a visit to a scheduled radio broadcast, the Adler Planetarium, Chicago Academy of Sciences, the Chicago Historical Society, the Field Museum of Natural History, Garfield and Lincoln Park Conservatories, Lincoln Park Zoo, the Museum of Science and Industry ("A Trip Through a Coal Mine"), and the Shedd Aquarium.

At the close of her lesson, Marie had prepared two bible quiz's which we enjoyed.

During the business meeting the aid voted to sponsor an ice cream social in the church basement on the first Saturday night in September. The soliciting committee for cakes is as follows: Elva Compton, Bessie Waymire, Emma Rhea, Hazel Spalding and Ida Mae Allen. All proceeds of the supper will be put into the General Fund of the church, to assist in the light, water and coal bills for the coming winter.

Mrs. Carrie Nuttall will be our leader for the September meeting and Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Allen the hostesses.

At the close of our meeting our hostesses Mesdames Hazel Spalding and Marjorie Enoch, invited us to the basement where we found our chairs arranged in semi-circle before a pretty table on which were dainty sandwiches, cookies and a large punch bowl containing a cooling fruit drink.

Jesse L. Simpson, Edwardsville Republican and Madison County Judge, Monday defeated his Democratic opponent, State Rep. Carl H. Prehs, of Pana, for justice of the Illinois Supreme Court from the 2nd judicial district.

Aug. 3-9 Set Aside To Eradicate Rag-Weeds

The period from August 3, through August 9, has been designated as Anti-Ragweed week. Officers and members of the Anti-Ragweed association will be active throughout the week in eradicating this weed, which is so objectionable to those who are subject to hay fever.

Governor Dwight H. Green, in a statement released at his office, said: "I heartily commend this organized drive against a troublesome, unsightly weed, and urge owners and caretakers of real estate throughout Illinois to join in making the movement a gratifying success."

ONE STEP can be FATAL!

12,200 pedestrians were killed by automobiles last year—1,340 more than the year before. Two out of every three violated traffic laws or committed unsafe acts which contributed to their deaths.

And believe it or not—many of these fatal accidents actually happened less than six feet from the curb—only a step or two from safety!

Between intersection accidents accounted for more than one-third of all pedestrian fatalities last year. These victims carelessly rushed out from behind parked cars, or simply jaywalked themselves into traffic—and death. Others even ignored the safety of lights and traffic officers at intersections to save a few seconds—and lost their lives.

Never take safety for granted. Cross at intersections within the cross-walks. Wait for the light or the policeman's whistle. Be alert for the inconsiderate driver making a right turn, or the reckless one beating a light. On open highways, allow for the speed of approaching cars. Walk to the left, facing traffic.

Whenever you cross, look both ways. One step can be fatal!

The Illinois State Library circulated almost three-quarters of a million books in the past nine months, Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett reported today. Mr. Barrett is State Librarian.

In the same period the library circulated 36,538 pictures and prints from its art collection to individuals, schools and community groups.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON TEXT FOR AUGUST 10—
Proverbs 2:1-5; 10:17; 4:14-27; 5:1-4;
31:10-12; James 1:13-15.

MEMORY SELECTION—Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.—Proverbs 4:23.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

By WILLIAM CULBERTSON, D. D. of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

IT IS well for us to face squarely such a topic as the one assigned. It is particularly necessary to review the biblical standards with regard to holiness of life, since the day in which we live is one of lowered conceptions.

You will probably remember the story of the celebrated artist who was renowned because of his ability to put on canvas colors of accurate hue and great beauty. His secret was that he kept a number of valuable gems of all colors. He would turn frequently from his painting to study the color of these gems.

We need to spend time with the precious gems of the Word of God that we may clearly understand how he would have us live.

I. True Wisdom Involves the Fear of Jehovah (Prov. 2:1-5).

IN THE opening chapters of Proverbs, Wisdom is personified. Anyone who believes in Jesus Christ cannot help understanding something of his relationship to wisdom. In him "are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge" (Col. 2:3). To those of us who trust him, he has been made unto us wisdom (I Cor. 1:30).

In this passage in Proverbs the point is that if we observe his commandments, if we incline our ears unto wisdom, if we apply our hearts to understanding, if we long for discernment, as earnestly as we would seek for silver and hidden treasures, we shall understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God.

God will meet every individual who really wants to know him. Said our Lord, "If any man wills to do his will, he shall know . . ." (John 7:17).

II. True Wisdom Involves Holiness of Life (Prov. 2:10-17; 4:14-17; 5:1-4).

To truly know God is, of course, to be spared the heartache which results from being deceived by sin and Satan. When wisdom enters the heart, the result is discretion and understanding (Prov. 2:10, 11). Thus God delivers us from the way of evil and from men that speak evil things (v. 12).

Attention should be given to the description of these evil men in verses 12-15: they speak perverse things; they forsake the paths of uprightness; they walk in the ways of darkness; they rejoice to do evil; they delight in the perverseness of evil; their paths are crooked and wayward.

Deliverance from the strange woman is likewise vouchsafed, as we have true wisdom. The description of these women is informative—flattering, forgetful of both friends and God; their lips drop honey, their mouths are smoother than oil.

Notice the conclusion of the matter: In the end they are bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword, their feet go down to death, and their steps take hold or Sheol.

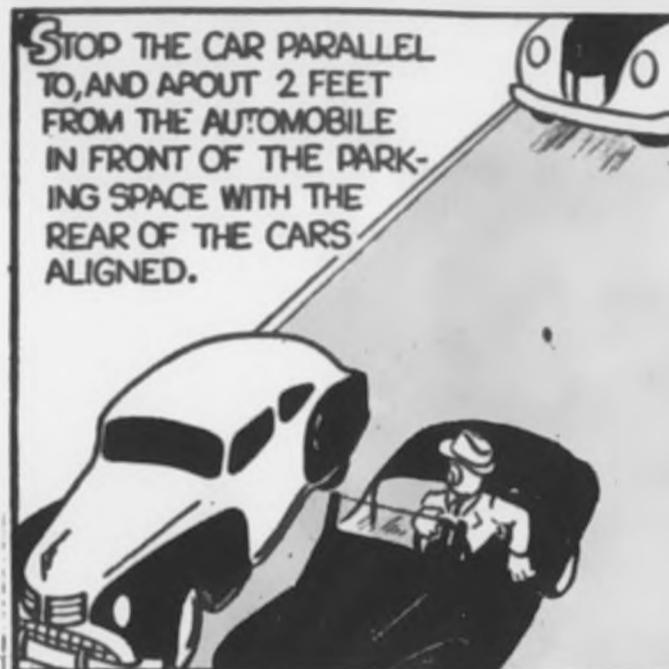

How much we need God's wisdom in this world. It is easy to be deceived.

III. True Wisdom Means Peace at the End (Prov. 4:18-27).

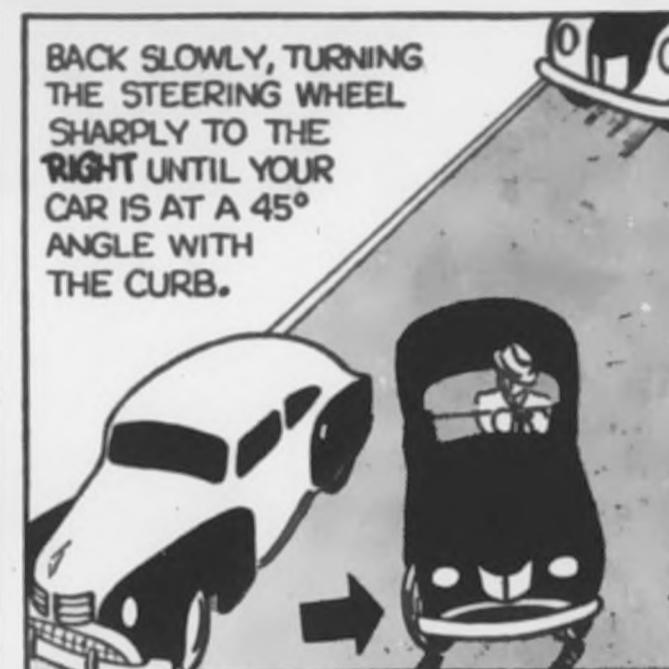

To walk with God, to walk in wisdom, is indeed as the dawning light, shining more and more unto the perfect day. If there were no other reward for living for God (and there are many, many others), the benediction at eventide would be enough to cause us to think seriously before we flout the ways of God.

Gasoline Tax Bill Soars As Motorists Pour Record Revenues Into Hwy. Fund

Revenues from the 3c state gasoline tax paid by Illinois motorists during the first six months of 1947 totals more than $21,245,267, according to J. H. Higgins, Executive Secretary of the Illinois Petroleum Industries Committee. This represents a 8.4% increase over the first half of 1946, setting a new high in the 20 year-history of gasoline tax collections.

During the first six months of 1941, when automobile registrations were at their peak, gasoline tax revenues amounted to $20,955,438. Special taxes paid by motor vehicle owners rose from a 1941 figure of $53.26 per vehicle to $63.00 in 1946, reflecting the increased use of, and dependence of the public on, cars and trucks. The total 1947 gasoline tax bill alone is expected to reach $46,500,000, Mr. Higgins said.

"In terms of highway construction," he added, "this means that motorists will pour $74,000,000 in gasoline taxes and registration fees into the state highway fund this year."

"Even though we have become accustomed to talk of roads in thousands of miles and road funds in millions of dollars, there is an element of awe in the fact that Illinois motorists alone paid a gasoline tax bill of $21,245,267 during the first six months of 1947."

Pecans Nutritious

Pecans furnish a generous amount of fats and protein, and also B vitamins, together with small amounts of iron and calcium.

IV. A Representative of True Wisdom (Prov. 31:10-12).

THIS passage describes the wise woman. She is indeed to be extolled. The worthy woman, the woman who loves God, the woman who is therefore wise, is in price far above rubies.

V. Sin's History (James 1:13-15)

THE wise man, the man who will be pure in heart and life, ought to understand something of the history of sin in his individual life.

Temptation here refers undoubtedly to a solicitation to evil. God does make trial of men (Gen. 22:1) but he does not dangle before them that is evil in itself.

The history of personal evil is, that because of our lust we are enticed. Thus when lust has conceived (that is to say, we have succumbed to the enticement), sin is born, and sin, when it is finished—but it is never finished; it goes on and on; no power on earth can arrest it—bringeth forth death.

In Wallpaper

More wallpaper is produced in Illinois than in any other comparable area in the world; the United States is the world's largest producer of wallpaper and about two-thirds of the country's total product is manufactured in this State. Joliet alone produces more wallpaper than any other city; one-third of the State's total product comes from the six mills located there.

The first people to use wallpaper were the Chinese, who commemorated the death of relatives by putting up a strip of paper after each death. Traces of these, covered with delicate hand-painted designs and used for purposes of ritual 2,000 years ago, have been discovered. The Chinese are also known to have used hand printing from wooden blocks before the Christian era.

MERCHANTS and missionaries returning from China brought the first wallpaper that was used in Europe. There is some uncertainty about the date of the first production of wallpaper on the Continent; some authorities believe it may have been between A. D. 1450 and 1500. Wallpaper discovered at Christ's College, Cambridge, is believed to be the first ever made in England. It was printed in black ink on white paper from blocks measuring 16 inches by 11 inches; on the back was a proclamation announcing the death of Henry VII in 1509.

All the oldest specimens were found in old inns, country houses, and college rooms, rather than in large mansions, as paper was introduced to solve the problem of covering walls when the expensive damask, embroidered, and painted silk hangings then in vogue were too costly for ordinary purposes. It was later recognized as good style, however, and was sought by kings and queens and the nobility as well as commoners.

Seventeenth century wallpaper was made in sets, hung on rollers, and taken down from time to time. Each hanging was about 11 by 4 feet and joined laterally with the next one in the set. The paper was made in small sheets and fastened together. The designs were painted on by hand or printed in with wooden blocks, pear wood being used as the least likely to warp. Toward the end of the century, stencil plates were used in adding various colors to block-printed designs.

In 1783 a machine was invented in England for printing calico with engraved rollers, and in 1790 a Frenchman invented a small machine which produced long lengths of paper about the width of a piece of tape. Improvements followed, and early in the 19th century the production of wallpaper on a commercial scale as we know it today was begun.

Machine or cylinder printing of wallpaper was first undertaken in

In July of 1847 the Post Office department issued its first U. S. stamps. This year marks the 100th anniversary of the first postage stamp and the department has made a commemorative issue bearing the pictures of George Washington and Benjamin Franklin.

Most of us take for granted that there have always been postage stamps but Elvin Atherton gave us a definite reminder a few days ago when he brought to this office a letter dated July 19, 1846, which bore no stamp but simply the written words in the upper right-hand corner, "5c Paid."

The letter was from William and Mary Atherton of Bedford Co., Pennsylvania.—Lovington Reporter.

design with the coming of the machine age. The same types of paper, with only slight variations in designs or colorings, were produced for 100 years. Their popularity waned, but the picture changed about ten years ago. The wallpaper industry began tempting the public with fresh, attractive designs and fascinating colors, and a trend toward a greater demand for the more expensive, higher-quality grades of paper began, only to be cut short by the war. For four years no new designs were obtained and the paper allotment was decreased drastically, but during the past year the industry has been building up once more, has acquired new designs and expects 1947 to be one of its best years, as Illinois wallpaper does its part in satisfying the pent-up demand for home interior decorating materials.

"Babes In Toyland" At Municipal Opera"

August 11th to 17th

Victor Herbert's glorious musical extravaganza, "Babes In Toyland" will be given a spectacular staging next week as the Municipal Opera's annual treat for youngsters of all ages. The operetta will open a week's run Monday night, August 11, with performances starting nightly at 3:30 o'clock.

A host of story-book characters will come to life on the huge Forest Park outdoor stage in the wonderland of Toyland, where dwells the Master Toymaker. Widow Piper and her son Tom, Contrary Mary, Jack and Jill, and many others. For the Fairyland Fantasy, Herbert composed some of his best beloved melodies, including "March of the Toys," "Never Say Ba-Boo," "Mary, Mary Quite Contrary," "Country Dance," "I Can't Do That Sum," "Go to Sleep," "Hail to Christmas," "Rock-A-Bye Baby," "Toyland," and "Our Castle in Spain."

A gay cast headed by St. Louis' own petite dancing ingenue Virginia Gorski, will be seen in the production. Miss Gorski is returning for the first time after captivating audiences in her first Municipal Opera starring role earlier this season in "No, No, Nanette." Other principals include Mary Hoppe, Edwin Steffe, Nixon Miller, Emile Renan, G. Swayne Gordon, and Dan M. Eckley.

For the delight of children, as well as grownups, many specialties will be presented. Eckley, Municipal Opera's modern dance director and himself a top-notch dancer, will step behind the footlights for an acting-dancing role. Naska will return after a four-year absence to present her sensational butterfly dance, and little 16-year-old Joey Presti, the miniature Gene Krupa who can beat out boogie with the best of them, regardless of age, will do his specialty behind a man-sized set of drums. Topping the special acts will be the children's dancing chorus, composed of 24 youngsters ranging from 7 to 10 years, which will be seen in two numbers.

The delightfully whimsical tale of "Babes in Toyland" is about the intrigues of old Uncle Barnaby, a rascal, who hopes to wed Contrary Mary and add to his wealth by seizing the fortunes of his nephew and niece, Alan and Jane. In the end, Barnaby pays for his greed, and happiness reigns once more in Toyland. To create the proper fairyland atmosphere, settings will include a giant toymaker's shop and an elaborate, fanciful toyland forest filled with towering castles.

New Kiddies' Garments to Be Sold by Measurements

In the past, mothers of young children have done a lot of complaining about the sizes of children's clothing. Now at least one of the large firms in the garment industry is doing something about it by adopting a new sizing program for all infants' and children's underwear, playwear and sleeping wear; but the success of the program will depend on the co-operation of the mothers give.

The fundamental basis for the new program is body measurement instead of age of the child, and it is worked out according to scientific data assembled by the bureau of human nutrition and home economics of the U. S. department of agriculture. In order that the program will not be too revolutionary, age markings—so long the designation under which garments have been sold—will be continued for a time.

The homemaker looking for an accurate fit will need to know the age and weight of a baby when shopping for infants' wear such as shirts or training panties. If she is buying union suits or two-piece button-together training suits, age and vertical trunk measurements are called for. Chest and waist measurements are needed for boys' shirts and shorts, and age, weight and height for girls' panties and vests. For a while at least, woven labels on the garments will carry size markings by age only, but the label on the end of the box will give body measurements.

Mighty Fittin'—Those Old-Time Tomato Preserves

"How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood!" Memories of old oaken buckets belong to a vanishing generation but almost everybody has fond recollections of the favorite foods of his childhood. Every year a good many people write Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director for Ball Brothers Company, manufacturer of fruit jars, requesting a recipe for pickles or preserves "like my mother or grandmother used to make."

An Old Favorite

A recipe popular a half century ago appeared in an early edition of the Ball Blue Book. It reads: "To every pound of small yellow tomatoes allow one pound of sugar. Put the tomatoes and sugar together and to every seven pounds of sugar allow the juice of three lemons. Let stand together all night and in the morning drain off the syrup and boil. (The recipe doesn't tell how long, but 10 minutes should do.) Put in the tomatoes and simmer for twenty minutes after they boil. Remove the tomatoes and allow the syrup to boil until thick. Just before taking from the fire, add the lemon juice. Put the fruit in the jars and cover with boiling syrup. Seal immediately."

If a more modern recipe is wanted, you might try:
2½ pounds (peeled) small tomatoes
2½ pounds sugar
2 cups water
¼ ounce whole ginger
1½ lemon (sliced thin)
½ ounce of stick cinnamon
Boil together water, sugar, lemon and spices for fifteen minutes; add tomatoes, a few at a time, and cook gently until the tomatoes become bright and clear. Then pour into shallow pans, cover and let stand over night. Pack the cold tomatoes into hot jars and strain the syrup over them. Process twenty minutes at simmering.

Recipe for Less Sugar

If you are wondering where you are going to get the sugar, as who isn't, here is your recipe:

2 pounds tomatoes
2 cups sugar
2 cups corn syrup, light or dark
½ cup water
1 lemon
1 small orange
1 stick cinnamon
2 pieces ginger root
6 whole cloves
½ cup raisins

Use small, firm, red, yellow or green tomatoes. Scald one minute. Dip into cold water. Skin but do not core. Combine sugar, syrup, water, lemon, orange (sliced thin) and spices, and simmer 30 minutes. Remove spices. Add tomatoes and boil gently until they are bright and clear. Add raisins. Cover and let stand over night. Pack cold tomatoes into hot fruit jars. Boil syrup until thick as honey and pour over tomatoes. Process 15 minutes at simmering.
